About this Guide

At Queensland Country Bank, we are committed to providing our Members with the best possible experience.

If you are unhappy with our products, services, staff, a decision we have made or even the way we have handled your complaint, please let us know. Our friendly team would appreciate the opportunity to work through a resolution with you.

This guide will step you through our complaints handling process including how to make a complaint, what you can expect from us and how long the process will take. We will also make sure you know how to contact the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) if you are not satisfied with our response or we have not been able to resolve your complaint within the timeframe required.

Customer Owned Banking

The Queensland Country Bank Internal Disputes Resolution process complies with the standards and requirements approved by ASIC including Regulatory Guide 271.

As a proud Member-owned bank and subscriber to the Customer Owned Banking Code of Practice (COBCOP), where the COBCOP sets a higher standard in terms of responding to Member complaints we will adopt that standard.

Acknowledge & Assess

We will acknowledge your concern and, wherever possible, we will attempt to resolve your complaint on the spot.

In this instance we will do all we can to get back to you within five (5) business days of you making your complaint.

Respond

If we are unable to have a satisfactory response within five (5) business days, we will communicate that with you, and within 21 days of you making the complaint we will provide you with our findings and decision in writing. More complex complaints may take longer to resolve and where we require more time, we will let you know.

How will we communicate with you?

We are committed to making it easy to communicate with us. Complaints do not need to be received in writing. We will communicate with you where possible via your preferred channel or method.
